ITEM

Establishment of a Caribbean/Latin American Business Center at CCSU

BACKGROUND

The President of Central Connecticut State University has expressed the desire to establish a Caribbean/Latin American Business Center as a logical progression from the Center for Caribbean and Latino Studies re-authorized and renamed by the Board in 2000. In an effort to initiate and support business efforts in and between Connecticut's Caribbean and Latin American citizens, the Center will act as a conduit for information and offer special assistance to those business that seek to develop long-term links between Connecticut and the entrepreneurs country of origin.

ANALYSIS

The Center's primary goal is to provide knowledge, education and services to Connecticut businesses and their associates in the Caribbean and Latin America, including sponsoring economic, political and legal seminars and community forums, facilitating business missions, and providing business internships for CCSU students.

The University will use this Center to promote economic development and expand educational programs that focus on the Caribbean and Latin America. The objectives of the Center are compatible with the mission of Central Connecticut State University and the Connecticut State University System and with the current strategic plan of CCSU.

The Caribbean/Latin American Business Center meets the criteria necessary to establish it as a special entity in accordance with Board policy. The director of the Center will evaluate and report annually to the President of the university on the Center's programs, services and activities, and its fiscal well being. This report will also be shared with the Chancellor of the Connecticut State University System.

CHANCELLOR'S RECOMMENDATION

Approve the establishment of the Caribbean/Latin American Business Center at CCSU with a sunset date of December 31, 2006, if the Center is not recommended for continuation.

As a result of the COAVP meeting the name of the Caribbean/Latin American Business Center was changed to The Caribbean/Latin American Office of Business Collaborations. This was in the material provided to and announced at the Academic Affairs Committee meeting. I noticed that the original name is still on the agenda. I just wanted to bring this to your attention so the formal name can be changed in the final acceptance of the resolution. As your know, that collaboration will function as a part of the larger
