Dear Mrs. Hayber:

On June 9, 1971 a letter was sent from Dr. Croft to Professor Leo Schneiderman informing him that he was appointed associate editor for a term to run until September 1, 1976.

As originally planned, the position of associate editor was to have a two year term. Were these plans changed? Or was Dr. Croft's letter in error?

Sincerely,

Bertram D. Sarason
Editor
Connecticut Review
