RESOLUTION

concerning

Control of Student Activity Fees

March 12, 1971

RESOLVED, That the control of student activity fees shall be as follows:

1. Those fees specifically designed to be under the control of students for the purpose of underwriting recognized student organizations, clubs, and the program functions of the Student Centers shall be governed according to regulations as promulgated by the Commissioner of Finance and Control.
2. The operation of such functions, but not limited to, as laboratory, medical, insurance, gym, athletics, and college union operating fees shall be a separate fee collected from students by the Colleges, the amount of which is to be established by the appropriate authority.
