RESOLUTION
concerning

Extension Courses

at

Western Connecticut State College

October 6, 1972

RESOLVED, That the Extension Division of Western Connecticut State College
is hereby authorized, as a community service, to offer courses at the Federal Correctional Institution at Danbury, Connecticut, for the sum of $2,000 per three-credit hour course, including instruction, books, and supplies.

Explanation of Resolution concerning Extension Courses - WSCC

The courses to be offered at the Federal Correctional Institution at Danbury will lead to an Associate in Science degree. Students will be subject to regular college standards. It is planned to offer two courses each semester this year, possibly more in the future, if additional funds are made available to the Institution.

For this year there will be one class for each course with about thirty students per class. The $2,000 fee per course is somewhat less than the established individual rate. However, it supposedly will meet the cost of giving a course -- estimated at $400 for books and supplies and $1,600 for instruction. The latter would include the use of both lecturers and full-time faculty over a series of courses.
