RESOLUTION

concerning

Securing Bonds in Lieu of Property Attachments in the Blumenthal Suit

July 13, 1973

WHEREAS, In the case of Warner Blumenthal vs. Hilton C. Buley et al, attachments were placed on the personal property of one Board member and four staff members, and

WHEREAS, Two years, seven months, and eleven days later with the case having not yet been heard and with the failure of the Board and its staff to have the liens removed through other means, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for State Colleges, pursuant to the provisions of Section 10-235 of the Connecticut General Statutes, shall pay the cost of bonds in lieu of the property attachments required in the case of Warner Blumenthal vs. Hilton Buley et al.
