RESOLUTION

concerning

GIFT FOR CENTRAL CONNECTICUT STATE COLLEGE

October 4, 1974

WHEREAS, Mr. Reginald Swann, Associate Professor of Psychology, who retired in June 1972, after 26 years of dedicated service, has demonstrated his continued loyalty and support of Central Connecticut State College by donating to the college library a collection consisting of 13,950 volumes in psychology, philology, and other fields; and in addition a collection of periodicals; and

WHEREAS, The Trustees deeply appreciate Mr. Swann's contribution to the library and his concern that students be provided with excellent resources for learning,

THEREFORE

BE IT

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees accepts his gift and requests the Executive Secretary to convey its appreciation to Mr. Reginald Swann for his generosity and for his desire to provide the very best educational opportunities for students.

Dear Reg:

I am certainly delighted for the opportunity of sending you the enclosed resolution from the Board of Trustees for State Colleges regarding your most generous gift of your collection of almost 14,000 volumes to our College Library. The trustees certainly join me in deepest appreciation to you for this gift which will have great value for the college, for your many faculty colleagues, and for the many students who will be able to use these materials.

I am so pleased for your continuing relationship with Central as Associate Professor Emeritus and your continued interest in the college that you served so well during your tenure here.

With best wishes,

Cordially yours,

F. Don James
President
