RESOLUTION

concerning

MRS. BERNICE CLARK NIEJADLIK

July 29, 1977

- WHEREAS, Mrs. Bernice Clark Niejadlik is a charter member of the Board of Trustees and was elected Vice Chairman at its first meeting on July 30, 1965, and
- WHEREAS, She was elected Chairman of the Board on March 3, 1967, becoming the second person to serve in that capacity, and
- WHEREAS, She continued to serve as Chairman until July 29, 1977, providing leadership to the Board and to the Connecticut State Colleges for a period extending over more than a decade, and
- WHEREAS, During the period of her Chairmanship the enrollments of the Colleges grew from under 20,000 students to over 32,000, and
- WHEREAS, The Colleges changed from what were essentially teacher training institutions to multipurpose campuses offering a wide variety of programs on both the graduate and undergraduate levels, and
- WHEREAS, She has given unstintingly of herself and has displayed the highest qualities of leadership, making many very difficult decisions and providing inspiration to the members of this Board and to the academic community that is the Connecticut State Colleges, and
- WHEREAS, The members of this Board hold her in high esteem and warm affection, now, therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Trustees acknowledge with gratitude the superb contributions made to the work of the Board by Mrs. Bernice Clark Niejadlik, that they express their appreciation for her strong and effective leadership, and that they avow their deep respect and affection for her.
