

STATE OF CONNECTICUT

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

FOR THE STATE COLLEGES

P. O. Box 2008

New Britain, Connecticut 06050

827-7700 TEL. NEW BRITAIN: 203 224 2002

AUTHORIZING RESOLUTION

concerning

Refine Job Description
Director of Financial Aid and Veterans' Affairs
Administrator VI

at

Eastern Connecticut State College

April 2, 1982

RESOLVED, That the job description for the position,
Director of Financial Aid and Veterans' Affairs,
Administrator VI, at Eastern Connecticut State
College be refined effective February 5, 1982,
in accordance with all provisions and expectations
as set forth in the proposal dated January 8, 1982, which is attached as an addendum to this Resolution.

AnCertified True Copy:

James A. Frost

Executive Director

EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE COLLEGE UNCLASSIFIED POSITION ALTERATION SUMMARY

| TITLE: DIRECTOR OF FINANCIAL AID AND VETERANS' AFFAIRS Administrator VI FUND: GENERAL POSITION TYPE: PERMANENT XX TEMPORARY FULL-TIME XX PART-TIME EFFECTIVE DATE: 2/5/82 BARGAINING UNIT SCOAF COST: $2,005.00 annually (Annual salary of incumbent to increase from $23,594.00 to $25,599.00) PROPOSAL: To increase the responsibilities of the present incumbent to include operational supervision of Eastern's Job Developer Program for Students. SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms to revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Amala 2. | | | | | | |
|---|--|--|--|--|--|------------|
| POSITION TYPE: PERMANENT XX TEMPORARY FULL-TIME XX PART-TIME EFFECTIVE DATE: 2/5/82 BARGAINING UNIT SCOAF COST: $2,005,00 annually (Annual salary of incumbent to increase from $23,594.00 to $25,599.00) PROPOSAL: To increase the responsibilities of the present incumbent to include operational supervision of Eastern's Job Developer Program for Students. SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: MALL. | TITLE: | | | AID AND VETERAN | NS' AFFAIRS | |
| FULL-TIME XX PART-TIME EFFECTIVE DATE: 2/5/82 BARGAINING UNIT SCOAF COST: $2,005.00 annually (Annual salary of incumbent to increase from $23,594.00 to $25,599.00) PROPOSAL: To increase the responsibilities of the present incumbent to include operational supervision of Eastern's Job Developer Program for Students. SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. Pat a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Machael BY: Ma | FUND: | GENERAL | | | | |
| SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Mr. Shall L. Scoaff | POSITION | TYPE: | PERMANENT | XX | TEMPORARY | |
| COST: $2,005.00 annually (Annual salary of incumbent to increase from $23,594.00 to $25,599.00) PROPOSAL: To increase the responsibilities of the present incumbent to include operational supervision of Eastern's Job Developer Program for Students. SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well." At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Machalla State from the program of the program over its first two programs over its first two progr | | | FULL-TIME_ | XX | PART-TIME | |
| COST: $2,005.00 annually (Annual salary of incumbent to increase from $23,594.00 to $25,599.00) PROPOSAL: To increase the responsibilities of the present incumbent to include operational supervision of Eastern's Job Developer Program for Students. SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well." At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Machalla State from the program of the program over its first two programs over its first two progr | • 200 | | | | | |
| $23,594.00 to $25,599.00) PROPOSAL: To increase the responsibilities of the present incumbent to include operational supervision of Eastern's Job Developer Program for Students. SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Makella L | EFFECTIV | E DATE: | 2/5/82 | | BARGAINING UNIT SCOAF | |
| SUMMARY: Since October, 1980 the program has generated $58,546.44 in work mone for Eastern students. The College hired its first job developer (Daniel Shea) at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. DATE: 1/8/82 BY: Mr. Make D. Make D | PROPOSAL | : To incre | $23,9 ase the resp | 594.00 to $25,59 consibilities of | 99.00) f the present incumbent to incl | ud |
| at a salary of $10,000.00 on 10/31/80 from existing federal work study funds. Mr. Shea has left to take another position and the College intends to absorb the program using existing personnel within the Office of Student Affairs. Mr. Savage has maintained fiscal supervision of the program over its first two years and will now add operational supervision as well. At a minimal expense to the State, the College hopes to continue this important service in terms of revenue generated for its students, career planning opportunities, and the maintenance of Eastern's ongoing contacts with area businesses and industries. It has grown into an important feature of our financial assistance and career offerings. BY: | | | | | | |
| MP/emb | for Easte at a sala Mr. Shea the progr Mr. Savag years and to the Si revenue g maintenan It has gr offerings | ern student ary of $10, has left to has main ge has main will now tate, the Ogenerated foce of East rown into as. | s. The Coll 000.00 on 10 to take anoth existing pers tained fisca add operation oblege hopes or its stude ern's ongoin | lege hired its for 1/80 from eximer position and sonnel within the supervision of the continue thents, career plang contacts with feature of our | first job developer (Daniel She isting federal work study funds if the College intends to absorb ne Office of Student Affairs. of the program over its first to n as well. At a minimal expension is important service in terms anning opportunities, and the n area businesses and industries | a) wo e of |

g. malone 3/16/82.