RESOLUTION

concerning

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM at

Central Connecticut State College

January 7, 1983

- WHEREAS, The International Student Exchange Program (ISEP), a federally-subsidized exchange program administered through Georgetown University, provides a unique opportunity for students to study abroad at a cost essentially equal to the cost of attending one's college in the United States, and
- WHEREAS, Central Connecticut State College has been a participating member since its inception and is the only public institution of higher learning in Connecticut to be a member, and
- WHEREAS, Revised ISEP regulations require that student participants be assured the security of room and board during the entire period of the exchange, including vacations, which results in an additional cost to all participating students, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That Central Connecticut State College be authorized to charge its students who participate in the International Student Exchange Program an additional fee to cover the cost of room and board during vacations within the academic year, including the semester break, at a per diem rate equal to that charged for room and board during the regular academic semester.
