

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

P.O. Box 2008 • New Britain, Connecticut 06050 • (203) 827-7700

RESOLUTION

concerning

NAMING OF
C. FRANCIS WILLEY ROOM
at EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

July 22, 1983

WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern Connecticut State University for more than forty years, and

WHEREAS, He distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has retired, and

WHEREAS, He is donating to Eastern Connecticut State University his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the present lounge area in the library be known as the C. FRANCIS WILLEY ROOM.

A Certified True Copy:

/James A. Frost Executive Director

paw

STATE OF CONNECTICUT

* RECEIVED

SAVE TIME: Handwriter messages are accessed from the commentation of the carbon if you really need a copy. STATE OF CONNECTICUT To James A. Frost, Executive	Interd	lepartment M	essage	CAVE TIME. Hardware	recentable
To James A. Frost, Executive Connecticut State University March 29, 1983 AGENCY Director ADDRESS From Charles R. Webb, President Eastern Connecticut State University AGENCY ADDRESS University AGENCY ADDRESS University ADDRESS University Struct As you know, C. Francis Willey has just retired. We plan to set aside a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	STO-201	REV. 11/81 STATE C		Use carbon if you really need a copy.	CENTRECTICUT Per CHARLETISM Vaint lines.
AGENCY NAME Charles R. Webb, President AGENCY ADDRESS MILE Eastern Connecticut State AGENCY ADDRESS MILE Eastern Connecticut State Eastern Connecticut State AS you know, C. Francis Willey has just retired. We plan to set aside a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.				TITLE	DATE
From Charles R. Webb, President Eastern Connecticut State 456-2231 AGENCY ADDRESS University AGENCY ADDRESS University AS you know, C. Francis Willey has just retired. We plan to set aside a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	To	James A. Fro	st, Executive	Connecticut State Universi	ty March 29, 1983
As you know, C. Francis Willey has just retired. We plan to set aside a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.				ADDRESS
As you know, C. Francis Willey has just retired. We plan to set aside a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	From	Charles D Wohh President		Eastern Connecticut State	TELEPHONE 456-2231
As you know, C. Francis Willey has just retired. We plan to set aside a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		AGENCY		ADDRESS
a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, be is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	SUBJECT
a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, be is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	.
a part of the J. Eugene Smith Library to house Dr. Willey's private collection which he is donating. In response to requests from his colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, be is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		As you know,	. C. Francis Willey	y has just retired. We plan to	set aside colleagues to honor his forty years tenure at Eastern, I should like to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	Y	a part of th	ne J. Eugene Smith	Library to house Dr. Willey's p	rivate to recommend that the area in which his books will be shelved be called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.	\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\	collection w	which he is donatin	ng. In response to requests from	m his called the C. Francis Willey Room. Perhaps this item could be put on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		colleagues t	o honor his forty	years tenure at Eastern, I shou	ld like on the agenda of the May meeting of the Planning Committee. If this is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.
is agreeable, I would suggest a resolution along the following lines: WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		called the C	. Francis Willey I	ing of the Dianning Committee	If this
WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern for more than 40 years and WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		is agreeable	e. I would suggest	a resolution along the followin	g lines:
WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.
WHEREAS, he distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		WHEREAS,	C. Francis Wille	ey taught at Eastern for more th	an academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		and the contraction of the Contr	40 years and
academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		WHEDEAS	he distinguished	d himself not only in a number o
UHEREAS, Dr. Willey has just retired, and WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		WILLIAM,
WHEREAS, he is donating to Eastern Connecticut his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.
scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		WHEREAS,	Dr. Willey has	just retired, and
RESOLVED, that the area designated to house these volumes be known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		WHEREAS,	he is donating	to Eastern Connecticut his priva	ite known as the C. Francis Willey Room.				ction of several thousand volume	25 3 known as the C. Francis Willey Room.		RESOLVED.	that the area d	esignated to house these volumes	- be
CRW:arc ★
CRW:arc ★
CRW:arc ★
±		CRW:arc

*
	*
		V. Advance and Management and A second annual act of the second and the second an

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

P.O. Box 2008 • New Britain, Connecticut 06050 • (203) 827-7700

July 26, 1983

Dr. C. Francis Willey 11 Centre Street Mansfield Center, CT 06250

Dear Fran:

On July 22, 1983 the Trustees passed the enclosed Resolution naming a portion of the Smith Library in your honor. Congratulations!

President Webb tells me that you are indefatigable in the search for books. Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

James A. Frost Executive Director

encl.

RESOLUTION

concerning

NAMING OF

C. FRANCIS WILLEY ROOM at EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

July 22, 1983

WHEREAS, C. Francis Willey taught at Eastern Connecticut State University for more than forty years, and

WHEREAS, He distinguished himself not only in a number of academic fields but also in the critical area of library building, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Willey has retired, and

WHEREAS, He is donating to Eastern Connecticut State University his private scholarly collection of several thousand volumes, therefore be it

RESOLVED. That the present lounge area in the library be known as the C. FRANCIS WILLEY ROOM.

A Certified True Copy:

James A. Frost Executive Director

