RESOLUTION

concerning

REESTABLISHMENT OF THE CONNECTICUT REVIEW

September 13, 1985

- WHEREAS, The Connecticut Review was published for a number of years under the auspices of the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State Colleges but publication was halted in the mid-1970's due to budgetary austerity, and
- WHEREAS, The Connecticut Review during its years of publication provided a highly appropriate vehicle for the presentation of scholarly works by faculty members and enjoyed a good reputation as a scholarly journal, and
- WHEREAS, The attainment of university status has brought to the attention of the CSU faculty and administration the need to provide encouragement for scholarly work within the university, and this has led to numerous requests to re-establish the Connecticut Review, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the Trustees of the Connecticut State University authorize the renewed publication on a semi-annual basis of the Connecticut Review under the auspices of the Connecticut State University, and be it
- RESOLVED, That the Trustees of the Connecticut State University authorize the President of the Connecticut State University to approve the expenditure of funds for the editorial, production, and distribution costs of the Connecticut Review, and be it
- RESOLVED, That the Trustees authorize the President of the Connecticut State University to appoint an editorial board and an advisory board for the Connecticut Review and, in consultation with the editorial board, to appoint an Editor and Associate Editor, and be it
- RESOLVED, That the editorial board appointed by the President of the Connecticut State University shall submit an annual report on the operation of the publication to the advisory board and to the President, who in turn shall submit an annual report to the Trustees.
