RESOLUTION

concerning

UNREPRESENTED GRIEVANCES

JULY 25, 1986

WHEREAS, There is an obligation under the statutes for the University to hear the grievance of any bargaining unit employees, and

WHEREAS, The obligation does not require multiple steps and procedure according to State Board of Labor Relations' Case No. 2380, now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That when an employee of the Connecticut State University presents a grievance which the agent declines to process and the agent has exclusive rights to process such contractual grievance, such grievance shall be heard by the employee's campus Dean of Personnel; or for the Executive Offices, the Associate for Faculty and Staff Affairs. Decision in the matter shall be consistent with the collective bargaining agreement then in effect, in writing, final, and without appeal.
