Chairman of the Board

RESOLUTION
concerning
A SALARY FREEZE
for
CSU PRESIDENTS, PROVOST AND VICE PRESIDENTS
for 1989-90

April 7, 1989

- WHEREAS, In its concern for the State's impending deficit in Fiscal Year 1988-89, the Board of Trustees for Connecticut State University had limited salary increases for Presidents, Provost, and Vice Presidents to 4 percent and those ranked Dean and above to 5 percent when other agencies of State Government employed no such salary restrictions at this time, and
- WHEREAS, The fiscal problems of the State of Connecticut have become even more severe than previously anticipated, and
- WHEREAS, The Governor has recently frozen the salaries of commissioners and certain other employees for Fiscal Year 1989-90 because of the continuing fiscal problems of the State, and
- WHEREAS, The Board desires to continue efforts within its area of responsibility to conserve budgetary resources, now, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the salaries of Presidents, Provost, and Vice Presidents shall be frozen at current levels until such salaries are next scheduled for review in July/August 1990, and be it further
- RESOLVED, That the Board expresses its deep appreciation for the continued dedicated service of the Senior Management Team whose increases were restricted in Fiscal Year 1988-89 to less than the cost of living and whose salaries are herewith frozen for the next fiscal year.
