Dear Tom,

Thank you for your letter of April 25 regarding the gift of Golf equipment to Central Connecticut State University.

This equipment will arrive on our campus at various times during the current calendar year. Some has already arrived, some is expected soon and, indeed, some of the equipment will not arrive until next Fall. I assure you that this is a true gift and is not received as a purchase discount. I can also assure you that neither the University nor any of its employees have incurred obligation to endorse the product or to render particular services to the donor.

As it arrives, the equipment is received and inventoried by appropriate University personnel consistent with State requirements. Since its full retail value upon complete arrival of all equipment is $8,752.00, a Board resolution concerning acceptance of this gift is requested. Whether this resolution is passed at the May 5 meeting of the Board or next Fall when all equipment has been received I leave to your good judgement.

Sincerely,

John W. Shumaker
