EXPLAIN THE NATURE OF THE PROPOSAL:

To establish a grant-funded position at Southern Connecticut State University effective October 8, 1990.

JUSTIFICATION:

Professor Terrell Bynum, Associate Professor of Philosophy, has received a grant from the National Science Foundation which provides funding for Southern to hire an Instructor to work in our Research Center on Computing and society. The Center conducts research and sponsors projects on social and ethical issues that arise from computing. This position will be used to help plan a national, scholarly conference, develop a research library and to edit books and other scholarly materials.
