commending

EMPLOYEES WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM'S
NEW ACCOUNTING AND BUDGETING SYSTEM

October 7, 1994

- WHEREAS, Flexibility legislation passed in 1991 provided the Connecticut State University system broad powers to manage its resources and ensure its continuing operations, and
- WHEREAS, In early 1992, Connecticut State University system management decided to move from the state cash based accounting system to an accrual based accounting and budgeting system that would provide significantly improved financial management capabilities, and
- WHEREAS, Implementation of the new system on July 1, 1994 was an extraordinary challenge and required a monumental effort of all those participating in the process, and
- WHEREAS, We believe it important to acknowledge the exemplary efforts of those who participated actively in implementing the new system, now therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees acknowledges and commends the superlative efforts of those participants as shown on the attached addendum to this resolution to implement the new system-wide budgeting and accounting system.
