BR#98-45

Connecticut State University System

RESOLUTION

honoring

THE VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM at EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

June 12, 1998

- WHEREAS, The Eastern Connecticut State University Varsity Baseball Team competed in the Northeast Regional and National NCAA Championship Tournaments at Mansfield, Connecticut and Salem, Virginia between May 14 and 27, 1998, and
- WHEREAS, The Team won the regional championship without incurring a single defeat while defeating the University of Southern Maine, Trinity College, and the University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth, and
- WHEREAS, The Team, competing in the national tournament, defeated the University of Wisconsin at Oshkosh, Aurora (Ill.), and Montclair (New Jersey) State University twice, and
- WHEREAS, Second Baseman and Co-Captain Chris D'Amato was named the tournament outstanding player and joined Scott Chaisson and Scott Czerwinski as members of the World Series All-Tournament Team, and
- WHEREAS, Scott Chaisson and Lance Podlesney were named to the NCAA Division III All-American first team, and
- WHEREAS The Team, under the leadership of Head Coach William P. Holowaty, Assistant Coaches Ron Jones, John Risley, Scott Smith, and Bob Wojcik and Co-Captains Jon Gerz and Chris D'Amato completed its 1998 schedule with a school record forty victories against only eleven defeats, and
- WHEREAS, The success of the Team has brought pride to ECSU and to the Connecticut State University System, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees extends its congratulations to the ECSU Varsity Baseball Team on earning honors as NCAA Division III National Champions for 1998 while noting that this achievement is Eastern's third NCAA National Championship in baseball.

A Certified frue Copy: McHugh, Chairn Lawrence D William LCibes, Ir., Chance

Central Connecticut State University 🛛 Eastern Connecticut State University 🖡 Southern Connecticut State University Vestern Connecticut State University CSU System Office: 39 Woodland Street, Hartford, Connecticut 06105-2337 Telephone: 860/493-0000

RESOLUTION

HONORING

THE VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM at

EASTERN CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

June 12, 1998

- WHEREAS, The Eastern Connecticut State University Varsity Baseball Team competed in the Northeast Regional and National NCAA Championship Tournaments at Mansfield and Salem, Virginia between May 14 and 27, 1998, and
- WHEREAS, The Team won the regional championship without incurring a single defeat while defeating the University of Southern Maine, Trinity College, and the University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth, and
- WHEREAS, The Team, competing in the national tournament, defeated the University of Wisconsin at Oshkosh, Aurora (III.), and Montclair (New Jersey) State University twice, and
- WHEREAS, Second Baseman and Co-Captain Chris D'Amato was named the tournament outstanding player and joined Scott Chaisson and Scott Czerwinski as members of the World Series All-Tournament Team, and
- WHEREAS, Scott Chaisson and Lance Podlesney were named to the NCAA Division III All-American first team, and
- WHEREAS The Team, under the leadership of Head Coach William P. Holowaty, Assistant Coaches Ron Jones, John Risley, Scott Smith, and Bob Wojcik and Co-Captains Jon Gerz and Chris D'Amato completed its 1998 schedule with a school record forty victories against only eleven defeats, and
- WHEREAS, The success of the Team has brought pride to ECSU and to the Connecticut State University System, therefore be it
- RESOLVED. That the Board of Trustees extends its congratulations to the ECSU Varsity Baseball Team on earning honors as NCAA Division III National Champions for 1998 while noting that this achievement is Eastern's third NCAANational Championship in baseball.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence McHugh, Chair

William J. Cibcs, Jr., Chancellor