

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-15

RESOLUTION

honoring

RICHARD MICHAUD

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

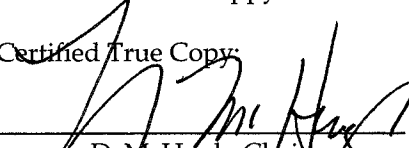

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

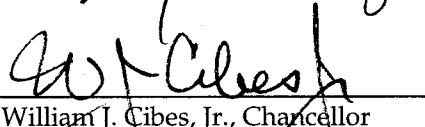

WHEREAS, Richard Michaud, a Management and Organization major at Central Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 4.0, and is the recipient of the Peat Marwick Academic Scholarship, the A.S.I.S. Academic Excellence Scholarship, has been inducted into Phi Theta Kappa, Psi Beta National Honor Society for Psychology; Delta Mu Delta National Honor Society for Business Administration, and Golden Key National Honor Society, where he was awarded the Golden Key Scholar Award in 1998, and has served as a Student Senator for two years, and while completing his education has worked full-time as the Director of Security for Pinkerton in Hartford, and is Chairman of the Hartford Downtown Council's Security Communications Access Network, and is also a Committee Chair for the American Society for Industrial Security, and he has volunteered as Coordinator for the annual Kid'rific Festival, been a fire fighter in Rocky Hill for five years, and an American Heart Association CPR & Basic Life Support Instructor, and

WHEREAS, Richard Michaud has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Mr. Michaud for his academic and service achievements, congratulates him on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-16

RESOLUTION

honoring

CB BENWAY

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, CB Benway, a Psychology major at Central Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 4.0, and is President of the Psi Chi National Honor Society in Psychology, the winner of four honors awards in 1998 and 1999, and her research has received the award as the Best Poster in the first annual Psychology Day program in 1998 and she has submitted her research for publication, and before coming to CCSU she received her Associate Degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Hartford where she was a member of Eta Kappa Nu Association and Kappa Mu Engineering Honor Society, and she has been employed by General Electric Company as a designer, and has volunteered as a Girl Scout Leader, serving as a coordinator for troops at the John Wallace Middle School in Newington, and is presently interning at Connecticut's Department of Children and Families, and will enter Yale University Graduate School of Nursing in the fall of 1999, and is a wife and mother of two daughters ages ten and two, and

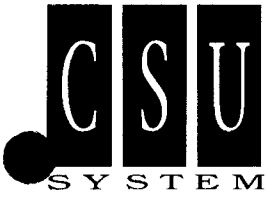

WHEREAS, CB Benway has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Benway for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-17

RESOLUTION

honoring

KIMBERLY RUTIGLIANO

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

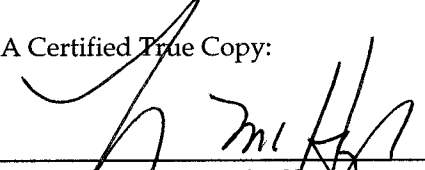

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

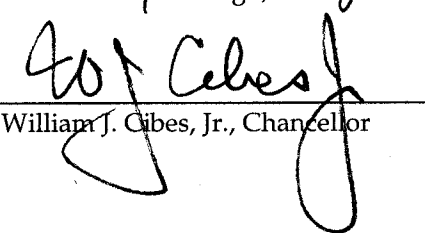

WHEREAS, Kimberly Rutigliano, an Anthropology major at Central Connecticut State University, graduated with a grade point average of 3.93 in December 1998, and began her goal to receive a bachelor's degree as a part-time student in 1989, and while working toward her degree has worked full time in the Rocky Hill library, where she plans children's programs and acts as a storyteller, and has extensive experience in technical and reference services, and is presently pursuing a Master's degree in library science, and is the mother of two; Jonathan, a recent UCONN graduate working in Washington D.C. and daughter Kristin who will graduate from William and Mary Law School the same week Ms. Rutigliano graduates from Central, and

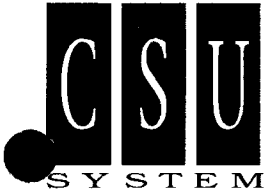

WHEREAS, Kimberly Rutigliano has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Rutigliano for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Gibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-18

RESOLUTION

honoring

HEATHER WASILEWSKI

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

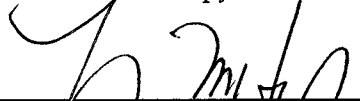

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Heather Wasilewski, an Economics and History major at Eastern Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.83, and is a member of Omicron Delta Epsilon, the International Honor Society for Economics, Omicron Delta Kappa, the National Honor Society for Leadership, is a University Honors Scholar, Vice President of the Economics Club, a three year member of the Eastern Connecticut State University Swim Team and is beginning her eighth year as a member of the "Sumpterville Civilians," a historical re-enacting organization, and is a past President and Secretary of the Canada Club, has been President of the Women's Center Student Coalition, President of the SCUBA Club, Chairperson of a student search committee for a new faculty member, and was a member of the History Club, a member of the College Bowl on the Economics Department team in March 1998, and previously was employed as a Market Analysis Consultant for TECHCONN and currently works for the Department of Economic and Community Development, and

WHEREAS, Heather Wasilewski has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Wasilewski for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

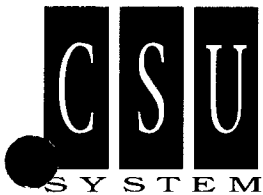

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-19

RESOLUTION

honoring

RICHARD GODDEN

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Richard Godden, an English major at Eastern Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.83, and was the recipient of the ECSU Honors Scholarship, the Eastern Achievement Scholarship, the Miriam E. Silcox Achievement Scholarship, the Eastern Class of 1994 Achievement Award, and has also received the CSU Research Grant for NE-NCHC Conference for 1997-1998, is listed in Who's Who in American Colleges & Universities, attended the 1997 North Eastern-National Collegiate Honors Council Conference, was co-founder and President of the English Club, co-editor of the Honors Newsletter, a writing tutor, a member of the peer conduct board in ECSU's Noble Hall, and a Student representative for the Academic Affairs Committee, and was Vice President and President of the Honors Club, a member of Honors Council, Copy Editor for the Campus Lantern, a member of CONNPirg, a Student Representative for Faculty Honors Council, Chapter President of Sigma Tau Delta, a member of the International English Honors Society and volunteers at a day-center, helps children and adolescents at a Camp for the Disabled, and is presently Lab Manager for Eastern's Data Center, and

WHEREAS, Richard Godden has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Mr. Godden for his academic and service achievements, congratulates him on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cipes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-20

RESOLUTION

honoring

JODI HOSS

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

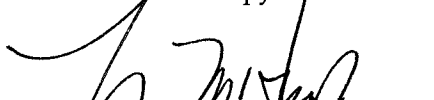

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Jodi Hoss, a Political Science major at Southern Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.99, and completed her honor's thesis entitled "The Right to Privacy: The Constitutionality of Physician-Assisted Suicide," and was listed in Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities, received a U.S. Air Force Association Eagle Grant, was President of Southern's Pre-Law Society, and in 1997, was an intern for the Connecticut General Assembly for Representative Dom Mazzaccolli, and was a member of Zeta Delta Epsilon Honors Service Society, a volunteer with Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Southeastern Connecticut, a member of the Air Force Reserve, and has traveled extensively and lived in Kodiak, Alaska for three years, and is presently employed as office manager/paralegal for the Connecticut Air National Guard, and a staffing specialist for Proto-Power Corporation, and plans to pursue a law degree, and has been accepted at Washburn, the University of Connecticut, University of Wisconsin and the University of Kansas law schools, and

WHEREAS, Jodi Hoss has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Hoss for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-21

RESOLUTION

honoring

JASON ROSNER

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

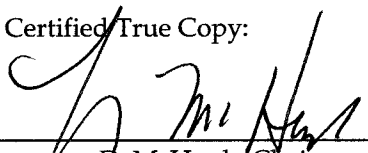

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

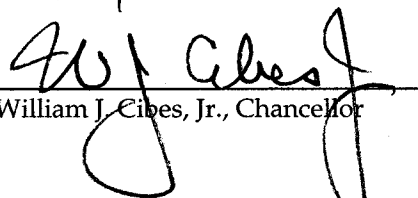

WHEREAS, Jason Rosner, a Mathematics major at Southern Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.98, and has been the recipient of the Sophomore and Junior Scholastic Awards, the Yulo Family Alumni Scholarship, and the District Outstanding Leadership Award from Service Merchandise, Co. and is currently Treasurer of the Southern Connecticut State University Mathematics Club, a member of the Society of Physics Enthusiasts, and has twice represented Southern in the international competition, COMAP, a Mathematical Contest in Modeling, where in 1998 his team was judged Meritorious, placing them in the top twenty of 400 participating schools, and will be pursuing a Master of Science degree in Aerospace Engineering and has been accepted by five graduate schools with several fellowship offers accompanying them, and

WHEREAS, Jason Rosner has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Mr. Rosner for his academic and service achievements, congratulates him on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-22

RESOLUTION

honoring

DANIELLE NEVES

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

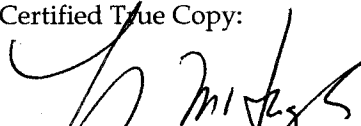

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Danielle Neves, a Psychology major with a specialization in research at Southern Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.87, and while attending Southern, has worked two jobs 50-60 hours per week as a waitress and as a Curriculum Coordinator for Leadership, Education and Athletics in Partnership (LEAP), a non-profit organization dedicated to the social and academic development of middle-school-aged children, and in the fall of 1997 she received a full-tuition Presidential Merit Scholarship, is currently completing an honor's thesis in psychology on classroom environment and self-esteem, and has collected signatures of students favoring tax relief for the poorest citizens as part of her role as the Southern Campus Representative for Connecticut Voices for Children, and has volunteered in two New Haven public school classrooms, helping children with reading and research projects, and

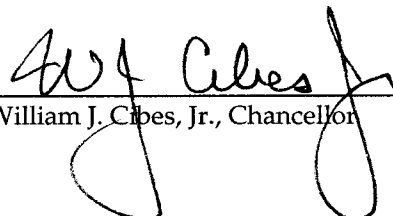

WHEREAS, Danielle Neves has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Neves for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

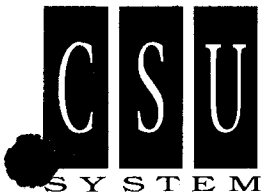

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-23

RESOLUTION

honoring

JESSICA RENDA

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

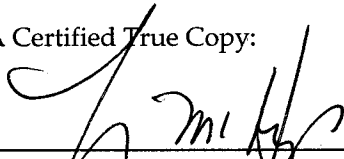

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Jessica Renda, an English and Community Health double major at Western Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.83, and is the recipient of the Western Connecticut State University Alumni Scholarship, the Grolier Journalism Award for the most outstanding student journalist, the Elizabeth Tulloch James Scholarship for excellence in English, and has volunteered at the Exodus mental health facility in Danbury, and has volunteered as a tutor for Western, and she has conducted numerous nutrition presentations at health fairs and schools in effort to expand community health education, is certified in CPR and First Aid, has worked at the Brookfield Journal, Western's student newspaper The Echo, The News-Times, and the Healthy Weighs, where she conducted outreach programs to promote health in the community, and is currently an employee at Grolier Publishing, Inc. where she is a freelance editorial assistant, and at Vanguard Temporaries where she is a health advisor, and

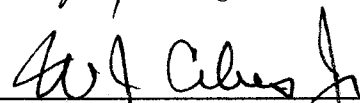

WHEREAS, Jessica Renda has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Renda for his academic and service achievements, congratulates him on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cbes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-24

RESOLUTION

honoring

HONG LIU

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Hong Liu, a Business major at Western Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.91, and after coming to the United States in the summer of 1993 and enrolling in an accounting class at Central Connecticut State University and in order to support her family she was forced to stop her education and worked more than 60 hours a week for ten months in a Chinese restaurant, and in the spring of 1995, she began taking classes again, this time at Tunxis Community College, where she was on the Dean's list every semester, and in 1996, enrolled in the business school at Western, and while attending Western, helped families adopt infants from China through a community family service by translating their applications into Chinese, and now is employed by Arthur Andersen, LLP, and is working towards her goal to become a licensed CPA, and is the mother of two-year-old Joyce Chen and the wife of Kenneth Chen, who has been a strong supporter of her endeavors, and

WHEREAS, Hong Liu has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Liu for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-25

RESOLUTION

honoring

AIMEE TURECEK

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

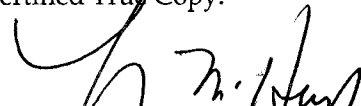

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Aimee Turecek, a Communication Disorders major at Southern Connecticut State University, has attained a grade point average of 3.76, and is a two-time recipient of the Satowsky Sholarship for academic excellence in the field of speech and language pathology, a four-time recipient of the Dworkin Scholarship for those working in the field of special education services, a member of Zeta Delta Epsilon honor's service society, serving as Treasurer and currently as President, and has been a member of the National Student Speech-Language-Hearing Association, has served as the student representative to the Buley Library Survey Committee, and was recently awarded the Department of Professional Studies Dean's Award for 1999, and while working her way through school she has been employed both as a University Assistant in the office of the Director of Library Services and as a teacher's aide in the summer program of the Shelton school system, and

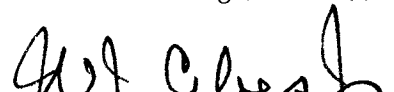

WHEREAS, Aimee Turecek has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Ms. Turecek for her academic and service achievements, congratulates her on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

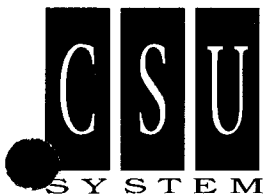

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cibes, Jr., Chancellor

Connecticut State University System

BR#99-26

RESOLUTION

honoring

TUAN DO DANG

on receipt of

THE CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY SYSTEM FOUNDATION
HENRY BARNARD AWARD

April 8, 1999

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State University System Foundation has voted to confer its Henry Barnard Award on twelve Connecticut State University System students in their final semester of undergraduate study, and

WHEREAS, The 12 recipients have been selected from approximately 3,500 graduating seniors, and

WHEREAS, The criteria for selection for this award include service to family, university or community, as well as outstanding academic achievement, and

WHEREAS, Tuan Do Dang, a Business major at Central Connecticut State University, has attained a 4.0 grade point average, and received the Excellence in Finance Award, the Delta Mu Delta Award, and the National Golden Key Award in 1998, and the Twentieth Century Scholarship in 1996 and 1997, and was on the Dean's List from 1994 to 1998, and received the Arthur C. Banks, Jr. Scholarship in 1996, and was Capital Community and Technical College Co-Salutatorian of 1996 and received the Trustees' Medallion of 1996, and has prepared Annual Surveys and the Central Connecticut State University's Fact Book of 1998, the Fact Page on the Web, and Central's Banner Home Page, and is a member of the National Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the National Delta Mu Delta Honor Society, the National Golden Key Honor Society and is a member of the Dean's Advisory Board for the School of Business, and he speaks both English and Vietnamese, and is currently employed as Assistant Director of Central Connecticut State University's Planning Office and Institutional Research, and

WHEREAS, Tuan Do Dang has been selected by the Connecticut State University System Foundation to receive its Henry Barnard Award, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State University System commends Mr. Dang for his academic and service achievements, congratulates him on receipt of the Henry Barnard Award, and extends its best wishes for a happy and successful future.

A Certified True Copy:

Lawrence D. McHugh, Chairman

William J. Cipes, Jr., Chancellor

ITEM

Henry Barnard Distinguished Student Awards

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Henry Barnard Distinguished Student Awards were established in 1989 to honor twelve graduating seniors annually from the Connecticut State University System. These outstanding students have attained a grade point average of at least 3.7 while voluntarily serving the university and the community. The recipients are selected from over 4,000 graduating seniors from Central Connecticut State University in New Britain, Eastern Connecticut State University in Willimantic, Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven, and Western Connecticut State University in Danbury.

CHANCELLOR'S RECOMMENDATION

Recognition by the Board of Trustees of the twelve Connecticut State University students recommended for this Distinguished Student Award.